

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

Tamra Faris,

Appellant,

v.

Gordon Taylor,

Appellee.

Supreme Court No. S-17807

Opening Notice

Appellate Rule 204

Date of Notice: 6/13/22

Trial Court Case No. 1JU-13-00757CI

1. On 6/15/20, Appellant filed a premature appeal in this matter. Judge Mead's final order/judgment was distributed on 5/6/22. Under Appellate Rule 204(a)(6), the Notice of Appeal is treated as filed on 5/6/22 for the purposes of composing the trial court record under Appellate Rule 210(a). Attorneys whose names and addresses are correct on this notice need not file an entry of appearance. All documents filed by a party who is not represented by counsel shall include an address at which that party can be served. The caption in this case will be as shown above.

2. In accordance with Appellate Rule 204(g), all parties to the trial court proceedings when the final order/judgment was entered are parties to the appeal. A party who files a notice of appeal, whether separately or jointly, is an Appellant under these rules. All other parties are deemed to be Appellees, regardless of their status in the trial court. An Appellee may elect at any time not to participate in the appeal by filing and serving a notice of non-participation.

3. The notice of completion of preparation of file is due from the Appellate Court Records Office (ACRO) on or before 7/25/22. The record in this appeal will include only the documents and proceedings in the trial court case referenced above. If either party believes that the record should contain documents or proceedings from any other related case, that party should file an appropriate motion.

4. This case may be subject to the requirements of Appellate Rule 221.

- ☐ On or before 7/13/22, the attorneys for all parties to this appeal must discuss settlement as required by Appellate Rule 221. The first attorney listed below is responsible for arranging the settlement discussion. Counsel for the parties must file an appropriate notice if the parties reach settlement of any issues. If no settlement is reached, counsel for the parties must file a certificate stating that the attorneys have discussed settlement with knowledge of their clients. This certificate is due on or before 7/25/22. A form notice/certificate is enclosed with this opening notice. This form is also available on the appellate court web site (www.appellate.courts.state.ak.us).
